DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1,2,5-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. In claims 1 and 28, the evaluating step in correlation to the accepting step does not produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. In claim 21, the accepting step does not produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. In claim 28, the evaluating step, determining step in relation to the accepting step does not produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. For example the results are not stored, displayed or conveyed to the user. See

Claim Objections

Claims 1, 21 and 28 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 1, line 4, it appears that "of" should be removed.

In claim 21, line 4, it appears that "of" should be removed.

In claim 28, , line 4, it appears that "of" should be removed.

Claims 3 and 4 are objected to for depending on rejected base claim.

Appropriate correction is required.
